Recorder Dancy Abroad.

Hon. John C. Dancy, the eloquent Recorder of Deeds, had a continuous ovation during his trip to the great West. His address at the corner stone laying of Walters' Chapel in Chicago on the 6th, was pronounced by the best authorities to be the finest effort of the kind ever heard in the city by the lake. At the Council meeting in St. Paul, he was the life of the gathering and by his watchfulness, the work of the organization was greatly simplified and extreme measures avoided. On the 13th, he delivered a stirring address at Pittsburg, in which he spoke optimistically of the Negro's future, illustrating the possibilities of the race by eulogistic references to the struggles and triumphs of such gallant leaders as Bishop S. T. Jones, J. C. Price, W. W. Browne, and the influence of the institutions they built up for education, business and spiritual development. He cited Edison, Toussaint L. Overture, Lincoln, Frederick Douglass, Wendell Phillips, William Lloyd Garrison and Charles Sumner as men who had risen from the ranks to power and place, notwithstanding the discouragements encountered. Mr. Dancy is now back in the harness at the Recorder's office, and is planning some extensive improvements that will be inaugurated about the opening of the fall season.
